

Arthur Terry
Teaching School

SLE Pen Portrait

Name: Sarah Cardwell

Current Position: Assistant Headteacher

Current School: Stockland Green

SLE Specialisms:

Humanities
Teaching and Learning

Current Responsibilities:

Leading of Teaching and Learning through Faculty and Year Team Leadership. Most notably seen during a Subject Inspection OFSTED for History. Faculty Leader for Humanities for 2 years with the most successful subject results achieved in line with FFTD predictions and an outstanding subject inspection of History from OFSTED completed. Tracking and monitoring systems introduced across the Faculty that were later adopted by all Faculties due to their success.

Leadership Experience:

Developed and co-led two courses delivered at both Arthur Terry and Stockland Green School. The first involving 22 staff in their 2nd and 3rd year of teaching encouraging staff to 'aspire to leadership roles'. Through a series of twilight 'leadership experiences and an individualised project linked to the SDP staff were linked with a mentor to support theme on their leadership journey. The second, a Middle Leaders course targeted Faculty Leaders and Heads of Year and used the Leadership Standards to plan and deliver a yearlong leadership CPD programme.